Question 2

For Examiner's Use

Imagine you are Paul Theroux, the writer. You decide to spend some days in Lahore before continuing with your journey.

Write a letter to an older member of your family who is thinking about visiting Pakistan.

In your letter you should:

- give your thoughts and feelings about your own train journey
- persuade your relative that visiting Pakistan will be worthwhile and enjoyable.

Begin your letter, 'Dear...'.

You should base your ideas on what you have read in the passage, but do not copy from it.

You should write between 1 and 1½ sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to ten marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to ten marks for the quality of your writing.
