1 Singh Foods (SF) makes a range of pickles and preserves (jams). The business has expanded quickly even though the economy is in recession. The Human Resources manager believes employees have helped SF to become successful by accepting new ways of working. She uses both profit sharing and non-financial methods to motivate the 200 full-time employees. Few employees leave each year. Most communication is done through a weekly printed newsletter. She is not sure if this is still the best way to communicate with employees.

4 AirGo is a market-orientated business. It provides flights to 10 airports across Asia. 90% of its customers are people going on holiday. AirGo only advertises in national newspapers. The Marketing Director is worried that demand for AirGo's flights is price elastic. Last year revenue fell due to increased competition. She wants to target a different market segment such as business customers. She does not know how new legal controls to protect the environment might affect AirGo.
