Section B (Depth Studies)

Answer any one question.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 19 printed pages and 1 blank page.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Look at the picture, and then answer the questions which follow.

A contemporary engraving of events in Berlin, 1848.

- (a) Describe the revolutionary events in Berlin in 1848. [5]
- (b) Why did Frederick William of Prussia refuse the Imperial German Crown in 1849? [7]
- (c) How much was Europe changed by the revolutions of 1848–9? Explain your answer. [8]

2 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Following the Treaty of Prague in 1866, Bismarck was acclaimed a hero in Prussia. Much of the opposition he had encountered earlier was withdrawn. The nationalists and liberals, who wanted German unification, were delighted with the Treaty.

From a British school history textbook published in 1985.

- (a) Describe how Prussia benefited from membership of the Zollverein. [5]
- (b) Why was the Treaty of Olmütz (1850) important? [7]
- (c) 'Bismarck was successful because he used force.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 3 Look at the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

A cartoon published in 1880 showing 'carpetbagging' oppressing the South.

- (a) Describe conditions in the South at the end of the Civil War. [5]
- (b) Why were 'carpetbaggers' resented so much by the South? [7]
- (c) 'Reconstruction after the Civil War brought more problems to the South than it solved.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

4 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In 1908 Austria annoyed Serbia and nearly sparked off a war between Austria and Russia. The Kaiser informed the world that Germany supported her ally. The Kaiser was very pleased with himself. He did not realise how dangerous it was to humiliate a Great Power.

An historian writing in 2011.

- (a) What was the Triple Entente? [5]
- (b) Why did the First Balkan War break out in 1912? [7]
- (c) To what extent were Germany's policies the main cause of war in 1914? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The Assembly was the largest body of the League. Every country that joined the League had a seat in the Assembly. The body met annually to discuss international issues. It could only recommend that an action be taken.

From a British school textbook published in 1989.

- (a) What was 'collective security'? [5]
- (b) Why was the League's organisation and structure a weakness? [7]
- (c) How successful was the League of Nations in dealing with international disputes in the 1920s? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Stalin told us that Ribbentrop had brought with him a draft of the Non-Aggression Pact which we signed. Stalin seemed very pleased with himself. We knew perfectly well that Hitler was trying to trick us with the pact. I heard Stalin say, 'Of course it's all a game to see who can fool whom. I know what Hitler is up to. He thinks he's outsmarted me, but it's actually I who have tricked him!'

From Khrushchev's memoirs about the signing of the Nazi-Soviet Pact in August 1939.

- (a) What was the Munich Agreement? [5]
- (b) Why was the Nazi-Soviet Pact important? [7]
- (c) 'The policy of appeasement followed by Britain was a disaster.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

When the transport restrictions to Berlin were imposed, when factories were closing down in the western sector and when the West Berliners had two hours of gas and electricity per day, the mayor of the Soviet sector of Berlin offered to supply all the food, coal and power that West Berlin needed.

The mayor of West Berlin turned down the offer. The crisis had to continue. The greater the misery, the colder and hungrier the West Berliners became, the more they would turn against the Russians.

From a book about the Berlin Blockade published in 1950.

- (a) Describe the disagreements between the USSR and the USA which emerged at the Potsdam Conference. [5]
- (b) Why was Eastern Europe largely in the hands of the USSR by 1946? [7]
- (c) 'The Marshall Plan was the main reason for Cold War tension increasing between 1947 and 1949.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 8 Look at the poster, and then answer the questions which follow.

A Vietcong poster.

- (a) Describe the involvement of the USA in Vietnam before Johnson became President in 1963. [5]
- (b) Why were the tactics used by the Vietcong effective? [7]
- (c) How far was public opinion the main reason for America's withdrawal from Vietnam? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- 9 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The Stresemann government left a solid record of achievement. A new and stable currency was introduced and the democratic government survived. The foundations were laid for the relative stability of the Republic in the years that followed.

From a biography of Stresemann published in 2002.

- (a) What were the Freikorps? [5]
- (b) Why did some political groups oppose the Weimar Republic? [7]

14 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The New Deal certainly did not get the USA out of Depression. As late as 1941 there were still six million unemployed and it was really not until America entered the war that the army of jobless finally disappeared.

An American historian writing in 1963.

- (a) How was Roosevelt intending to deal with the Supreme Court in 1936? [5]
- (b) Why did sections of the American business community object to the New Deal? [7]
- (c) How far did all Americans benefit from the New Deal? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY D: CHINA, 1945–c.1990

15 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

There is evidence that apathy and resentment is spreading fast in nationalist ranks, causing surrenders and desertions. Communist numerical support is increasing.

From a report by an American official in China in 1947.

- (a) Describe the activities of the Nationalists during the Second World War. [5]
- (b) Why was the Second World War important for the Chinese Communists? [7]
- (c) How far was the Communists' victory in the Civil War due to Nationalist unpopularity? Explain your answer. [8]

16 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

There is an evil spirit:
His name is Johnson.
His mouth is all sweetness,
But he has a wolf's heart.
He bombs Vietnam cities
And hates the people.
We will certainly not agree to this:
Chinese and Vietnamese are all one family.

A Chinese children's song.

- (a) Describe the incidents which took place on China's borders between 1950 and 1962. [5]
- (b) Why were relations between Communist China and the USA hostile in the first twenty years of the People's Republic? [7]
- (c) 'China was a superpower by 1990.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY E: SOUTHERN AFRICA IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

17 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In the 1920s and 1930s, successive governments passed Acts which extended discrimination on the grounds of race until it covered nearly all aspects of daily life. The attitudes behind these Acts of Parliament were summed up by the Stallard Commission of 1922 when it stated that 'blacks were in towns to look after the needs of the white man and should depart when they cease to carry out that function'.

From a school history textbook published in 1997.

- (a) Describe the main features of the constitution of the Union of South Africa. [5]
- (b) Why did successive governments adopt policies of segregation in the 1920s and 1930s? [7]
- (c) How effectively did Africans organise themselves against the effects of white rule during the 1920s and 1930s? Explain your answer. [8]

18 Look at the newspaper headlines, and then answer the questions which follow.
