If you have been given an Answer Booklet, follow the instructions on the front cover of the Booklet.

Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on all the work you hand in.

Write in dark blue or black pen.

You may use a soft pencil for any diagrams, graphs or rough working.

Do not use staples, paper clips, highlighters, glue or correction fluid.

Answer three questions.

Section A (Core Content)

Answer any two questions.

Section B (Depth Studies)

Answer any one question.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 19 printed pages and 1 blank page.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Meanwhile Mazzini's agents had helped to start a revolt in Sicily and they persuaded Garibaldi to lead an expedition to come to its relief. So began the legendary voyage of Garibaldi and his volunteer army of a Thousand Red Shirts.

From a British school textbook published in 1985.

- (a) Describe Garibaldi's liberation of Sicily in 1860. [5]
- (b) Why was the Crimean War an important factor in the unification of Italy? [7]
- (c) Cavour and Garibaldi both contributed to the unification of Italy. Which of these two played the more important role? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

For the third time in eight years, the Prussian army proved its superiority in leadership. On 1 September 1870, Napoleon III surrendered at Sedan after a single month of resistance.

From a British history book published in 1970.

- (a) What were the strengths of the Prussian army in the 1860s? [5]
- (b) Why was the defeat of Austria in 1866 important? [7]
- (c) 'Bismarck planned the Franco-Prussian War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

3 Study the illustration, and then answer the questions which follow.

An illustration showing Klansmen attacking a family in the Southern states of the USA.

- (a) What measures were taken in the years after the Civil War to improve the position of black people living in the South? [5]
- (b) Why was the Ku Klux Klan formed? [7]
- (c) 'By 1877 it was clear the Civil War had been a disaster for the South.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

4 Study the picture, and then answer the questions which follow.

The British battleship HMS Dreadnought, launched in 1906.

- (a) In what ways was Britain a great world power in the years before 1914? [5]
- (b) Why was the Archduke Franz Ferdinand assassinated? [7]
- (c) 'It was the naval arms race that caused the First World War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

This is our first real step forward. For now I realise, more than ever before, that once established, the League can arbitrate in disputes and correct mistakes which are in the Treaty.

Wilson writing to his wife in February 1919. This was just after the French and British had agreed to setting up a 'league of nations'.

- (a) How did Clemenceau wish to punish Germany after World War One? [5]
- (b) Why did Wilson want a 'league of nations'? [7]
- (c) How far had Germany accepted the Treaty of Versailles by 1923? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In the Far Eastern crisis of 1931 and the following years, Japan and China, owing to their great distance from Europe, might as well have been on the moon. The Japanese Government could count on the ignorance of people too busy with difficulties at home to be bothered about events in remote lands. People's minds in both America and Europe were focused on the economic depression that had started in 1929.

*An Italian historian describes Western attitudes towards the crisis in Manchuria.
He was writing in 1954.*

- (a) Describe the work of two of the agencies or commissions of the League of Nations. [5]
- (b) Why did the absence of several leading nations from the League make the work of the League more difficult? [7]
- (c) 'It was Manchuria and not Abyssinia which destroyed the League as an effective peacekeeper.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Since the early morning hours Russian troops have been attacking Budapest, and our people. Please tell the world of the treacherous attack against our struggle for liberty. Help! Help! Help!

One of the last broadcasts from a radio station held by Hungarian rebels, 1956.

- (a) What was the Warsaw Pact? [5]
- (b) Why was there a crisis over Berlin in 1961? [7]
- (c) How successfully did the Soviet Union deal with challenges in Eastern Europe to Communist control between 1956 and 1981? Explain your answer. [8]

8 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Within days of being granted independence by Belgium, there was chaos and turmoil in the Congo. Belgium sent in troops to protect its nationals but this action was illegal. The Congolese Prime Minister, Lumumba, appealed to the UN for help. Hammarskjold presented a resolution to the UN Security Council which would enable a special force to intervene and restore peace and unity.

From a British school textbook published in 1997.

- (a) Describe the membership and role of the United Nations General Assembly. [5]
- (b) Why has the work of the United Nations Security Council been important? [7]
- (c) 'The United Nations was more successful in Korea than in the Congo.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- 9 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

I propose that a Bavarian government be formed with a Prime Minister who has dictatorial powers. The government of the November Criminals and the Reich President is ended. I propose that the direction policy takes in the National Government will be my responsibility.

Hitler declaring the Munich Putsch, 8 November 1923.

- (a) What was Hitler trying to achieve through the Munich Putsch? [5]
- (b) Why did the Nazi Party struggle to gain support before 1930? [7]
- (c) 'The impact of the Depression was the most important reason why Hitler was able to become Chancellor of Germany in 1933.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 10 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The old trust him, the young idolise him. It is more than the admiration given to a popular leader. It is the worship of a national hero who has saved the country from utter despair. He is immune from criticism. He reigns over the heart and mind of Germany.

Lloyd George writing in a British newspaper in 1936, shortly after he had visited Hitler.

- (a) What were the roles of the Gestapo and the SS in Nazi Germany? [5]
- (b) Why were the Jews persecuted by the Nazis? [7]
- (c) By the end of the 1930s, did Hitler control Germany by oppression or by popular support? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY B: RUSSIA, 1905–41

11 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

After carrying out the October Revolution, the working classes hoped for freedom. But the result has been greater slavery. The bayonets, bullets and harsh commands of the Cheka – these are what the working class has won. The glorious emblem of the workers' state – the hammer and sickle – has been replaced by the Communist authorities with the bayonet and prison. Here in Kronstadt we are making a third revolution which will free the workers and the Soviets from the Communists.

From an official statement by the Kronstadt sailors, 1921.
