SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Study the picture, and then answer the questions which follow.

Garibaldi's expedition landing in Sicily.

- (a) Describe Garibaldi's campaigns in Sicily and Naples. [5]
- (b) Why was it not possible to complete the unification of Italy in 1860–1? [7]
- (c) 'The main reason for the creation of the Kingdom of Italy by 1861 was the intervention of Napoleon III.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

At Frankfurt the delegates split into two main groups over one fundamental issue. Was Austria to be included in, or excluded from, the new German Empire?

From a British school textbook published in 1985.

- (a) Describe the difficulties that the Frankfurt Parliament encountered. [5]
- (b) Why did Roon and Moltke reform the Prussian armed forces? [7]
- (c) How important was the Austro-Prussian War (1866) in the creation of the German Empire? Explain your answer. [8]

- 3 Study the illustration, and then answer the questions which follow.

A cotton plantation in the Southern states of the USA before the Civil War.

- (a) Describe the conditions in which slaves lived and worked. [5]
- (b) Why did slavery become an increasingly important issue in America in the 1850s? [7]
- (c) 'The South was badly treated by the North after the Civil War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

- 4 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

We must use the total strength of the nation, even if it means the risk of a major war. We must not be satisfied with a few left-over pieces of East Africa and the South Sea Islands. We must build the strength of our fleet to support our policy of 'Weltpolitik'.

A German admiral speaking in 1896.

- (a) Describe the colonial rivalry that existed between Germany and other powers by 1900. [5]
- (b) Why was the first Moroccan crisis (1905–6) important? [7]
- (c) How far did the actions of Austria-Hungary cause the First World War? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Severe as the Treaty might have seemed to many Germans, it should be remembered that Germany might easily have fared much worse. If Clemenceau had had his way the Rhineland would have become an independent state and the Saar joined to France.

From a British history book published in 1972.

- (a) With reference to the terms of the peace settlements of 1919–20, what were (i) mandates (ii) plebiscites? [5]
- (b) Why was Germany disappointed with the Treaty of Versailles? [7]
- (c) How far did the peace settlements of 1919–20 reflect the aims of President Wilson? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The League had been designed to deal with just such a dangerous problem as Corfu. It had acted promptly and fairly and it had condemned the violence of the Italians. But it had lost the initiative. The result was that a great power had once again got away with using force against a small power.

From a British history book published in 1970.

- (a) What were the main aims of the League of Nations when it was set up in 1920? [5]
- (b) Why was the League of Nations dominated by Britain and France? [7]
- (c) How far did the League of Nations achieve its aims in the 1920s? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Gorbachev's visit to East Germany encouraged protests against the deeply unpopular Communist regime. At a torchlight parade a crowd of thousands, to everyone's surprise, broke into chants of 'Gorby, Gorby, Gorby, save us.' In an extraordinary turnabout, a Soviet leader was now hailed by Eastern Europeans as a saviour from their own government's tyranny.

A description of Gorbachev's visit to East Berlin in October 1989.

- (a) Describe how the Berlin Wall affected people's lives in Berlin. [5]
- (b) Why did Khrushchev order Soviet soldiers into Hungary in 1956? [7]
- (c) How far were economic problems responsible for the end of Communist control in Eastern Europe? Explain your answer. [8]

8 Study the extract, and answer the questions which follow.

The UN army tried to restore peace and order to the Congo. Hammarskjold also called on the other resources of the UN, especially WHO and FAO. Together, these organisations provided doctors, nurses, medicines, experts and advisers. Gradually law and order were restored to the Congo although the UN army had to fight the breakaway province of Katanga to achieve this.

From a British history book.

- (a) What were the main aims of the United Nations Organisation (UNO) when it was established? [5]
- (b) Why has the UNO been able to play an important part in world affairs? [7]
- (c) How far did the United Nations' intervention in the Congo (1960–3) demonstrate that it was effective as a peace-keeping organisation? Explain your answer. [8]

SECTION B: DEPTH STUDIES

Answer any one question from this Section.

DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY, 1918–45

- 9 Study the poster, and then answer the questions which follow.

A Nazi propaganda poster about the SA.

- (a) What was the SA? [5]
- (b) Why did the Munich Putsch take place? [7]
- (c) 'The popularity of the Nazi Party's ideas was the most important reason for Hitler being appointed Chancellor of Germany in 1933.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

10 Study the photograph, and then answer the questions which follow.

Political prisoners at the Oranienburg concentration camp near Berlin.

- (a) Describe the relationship between the Nazi government and the churches. [5]
- (b) Why was there little opposition, in Germany, to Nazi rule? [7]
- (c) 'The use of the radio had a greater effect on the German people than did other forms of propaganda.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY B: RUSSIA, 1905–41

11 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

England, America and France are waging war against Russia. They are avenging themselves on the Soviet Union for having overthrown the landlords and capitalists. They are helping the landowners with money and military supplies. The landlords are attacking the Soviet Union in an attempt to restore the Tsar, the capitalists and the landowners.

Lenin speaking in 1919.

- (a) What help did other countries give to the Whites in the Russian Civil War? [5]
- (b) Why was War Communism unpopular? [7]
- (c) 'Lack of unity among the Whites was the main reason they lost the Civil War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

Chinese citizens taking part in a 'thought reform' meeting.

- (a) What was 'thought reform', introduced by the Communists in 1951? [5]
- (b) Why was industrial production low in China at the start of Communist rule? [7]
- (c) 'By 1962, Communist attempts to produce a new industrial society had succeeded.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY E: SOUTHERN AFRICA IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

17 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The war of 1899–1902 had been immensely destructive of life and property. An estimated 22 000 British troops died. Over 30 000 farmsteads in the republics and Northern Cape were destroyed. The war had also created divisions within communities and within families.

An historian writing in 2010.

- (a) What did Rhodes hope to achieve for Britain in South Africa? [5]
- (b) Why did the Second Anglo-Boer War (1899–1902) leave bitterness in South Africa? [7]
- (c) 'The creation of the Union in 1910 failed to solve South Africa's problems.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

18 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

We of Umkhonto have always sought to achieve liberation without bloodshed. We hope, even at this late hour, that our first actions will awaken a realisation of the disastrous situation to which the Nationalist Party is leading. We hope to bring the government and its supporters to their senses before it is too late. We are striking out along a new road for the liberation of this country.

From a leaflet published by Umkhonto we Sizwe (MK), December 1961.

- (a) Describe the ANC Defiance Campaign introduced in 1952. [5]
- (b) Why did the ANC turn to violence in the 1960s? [7]
- (c) How important was the part played by the ANC and other African nationalist organisations in bringing about the end of apartheid? Explain your answer. [8]

19 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

On 27 October 1966, the General Assembly of the United Nations decided to end the South African mandate over Namibia. This decision was confirmed by the United Nations Security Council which demanded that South Africa should leave Namibia.

An historian writing in 1997.

- (a) What actions were taken by the United Nations Organisation to carry out its decision of 27 October 1966? [5]
- (b) Why did South Africa lose its mandate over Namibia in 1966? [7]
