0470/43

Paper 4 (Alternative to Coursework), maximum raw mark 40

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

• CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2010 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

- (b) (i) Level 1 One mark for each valid aspect to a maximum of two e.g. A secret agreement between Britain, France and Israel to overthrow Nasser. Israel would invade Sinai, and then GB and France would act as peacemakers by getting forces between the two sides effectively occupying the Canal Zone. The plan suffered several leaks. [1–2]

One for each reason, one for each explanation e.g. The Sevres Plan had fallen apart after initial military success in Sinai, and occupation of the Canal Zone; Britain and France were humiliated by the forced withdrawal after threats and actions of the USA and USSR; The idea of a ceasefire under UNO auspices would, at least, give the Israelis some protection now that GB and France had gone. It would buy time to reassess and organise for any future action etc. [2–6]

- Level 2 Explanation of change OR lack of change, single factor given e.g.
- Chan Britain and France now unpopular in the Middle East and would play only a minor role in future. Nasser now very popular and would want to try his hand again in the future; the oil weapon had been used successfully and petrol rationing was common in the developed world. USSR aid replaced US aid to Egypt but Egyptian weapons and equipment losses would take years to replace; for a while Fedayeen raids ceased which gave Israel a breathing space etc.
- No The Palestinian problem was unresolved and would prove difficult for a number of states; the basic distrust and hatred remained; the outcome did not change the status quo after the 1948/9 war; USA and USSR still interested in the area, seeking to solve the Middle East problem or taking advantage of it etc. [2]
