At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

1 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In 1849 Garibaldi organised a gallant and courageous defence of Rome against the army of Louis Napoleon of France. King Ferdinand landed troops in Sicily and attacked the inhabitants. Thousands were massacred.

From a British school textbook published in 1985.

- (a) What successes did the revolutionaries in Italy have during 1848? [5]
- (b) Why was Italy not unified in 1848-49? [7]
- (c) 'Napoleon III of France and Cavour played equally important roles in the unification of Italy.'
 How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]
- 2 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Frederick William (of Prussia) had little choice but to accept the terms of the Treaty of Olmutz in 1850. The revolution of 1848 was over, the princes were back on their thrones and Prussia humiliated. Austrian forces had greater strength than the Prussian army.

From a British school textbook published in 1985.

- (a) What was decided by the Treaty of Olmutz (1850)? [5]
- (b) Why did war break out between Austria and Prussia in 1866? [7]
- (c) Which was the more important in the unification of Germany:

the Austro-Prussian War; the Franco-Prussian War?

Explain your answer. [8]

3 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The election of a man to the high office of President of the United States whose opinions are hostile to slavery, and who has declared that 'Government cannot exist permanently with a half-slave, half-free situation', and who has indicated that his intention, and that of his party, is the 'ultimate extinction' of slavery, justifies this action to leave the Union.

Resolution from a special South Carolina State Convention, 1860.

(a) What was the Compromise of 1850?

[5]

(b) Why was the Dred Scott decision important?

[7]

- (c) 'The American Civil War was not about slavery.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]
- 4 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

For Germany, the most dangerous enemy at the present time is England. It is also the enemy against which we most urgently require a navy.

Admiral Tirpitz speaking in 1897. Tirpitz was responsible for building up the German Navy.

- (a) Describe the part played by Germany in the arms race in the early years of the twentieth century. [5]
- (b) Why did the Alliance System create tension between the Great Powers at that time? [7]
- (c) 'The Balkan Wars, 1912-13, were more responsible for the First World War than the assassination of Franz Ferdinand.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.
- 5 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The members of the League recognise that the maintenance of peace requires the reduction of national armaments to the lowest possible level consistent with national safety and the enforcement by common action of international obligations.

6 Study the photograph, and then answer the questions which follow.

German soldiers marching into the Rhineland in 1936.

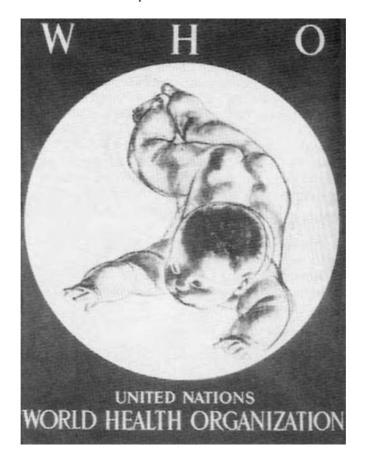

- (a) What actions did Hitler take between 1933 and 1937 to destroy the Treaty of Versailles? [5]
- (b) Why was Hitler able to unite Germany with Austria in 1938? [7]
- (c) 'The Nazi-Soviet Pact played a greater part in causing war in 1939 than did the policy of appeasement.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]
- 7 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

At Potsdam we were faced with an accomplished fact and were forced to agree to Russian occupation of Eastern Poland. It was a high-handed outrage. Unless Russia is faced with an iron fist and strong language another war is in the making.

From a letter sent by the US President Truman to his Secretary of State, January 1946.

- (a) What did Stalin gain from the Yalta conference? [5]
- (b) Why did tensions between the USSR and the Western Allies increase at the Potsdam conference? [7]
- (c) Who was more to blame for starting the Cold War, the USA or the USSR? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY F: ISRAELIS AND PALESTINIANS, 1945-c.1994

20 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Of all the sins committed by Arab states against Israel, none has been more severe than that committed by these wealthiest of the world's nations against their own people. Not only did the Arab states refuse to absorb the Arabs who fled Palestine in 1948, but they kept them in camps for 45 years solely for the anti-Israeli propaganda benefits to be derived from the sight of people living on inadequate charity. These are men, women and children who could have been rescued from their dreadful lives by the investment of Arab oil revenues.

Yitzhak Shamir, a former Prime Minister of Israel, writing in 1994.
