

Cambridge International Examinations

Cambridge International General Certificate of Secondary Education

SOCIOLOGY 0495/21

Paper 2 October/November 2014

1 hour 45 minutes

No Additional Materials are required.

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

An answer booklet is provided inside this question paper. You should follow the instructions on the front cover of the answer booklet. If you need additional answer paper ask the invigilator for a continuation booklet.

Answer any three questions.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

CAMBRIDGE

International Examinations

Sociology

Section A: The Family

1

The family has undergone many changes in modern industrial society. One of them is the move

(b) Describe two reasons for the decline of the extended family in modern industrial societies. [4] (c) Explain how roles within the nuclear family are changing. [6] (d) To what extent has there been a loss of family functions in modern industrial societies? [8] In modern industrial societies many women now work in paid employment. It is said that they have a 'dual burden'. (a) What is meant by the term dual burden? [2] (b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. [4] (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. [6] (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? [8] Section B: Education There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? [2] (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. [4] (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. [6] (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? [2] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]		from extended family to nuclear family.
(c) Explain how roles within the nuclear family are changing. (d) To what extent has there been a loss of family functions in modern industrial societies? [8] In modern industrial societies many women now work in paid employment. It is said that they have a 'dual burden'. (a) What is meant by the term dual burden? (b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? Section B: Education There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools in the context of the said that some of schools is the said that some of schools is the said that some of schools is the said that some children are disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools is the said that some of schools is the said that some of schools is the said that some children are disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools is the said that some children are schools is the said that some children are disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools is the said that some children are school schools is the said that school schools is the said that they have a said that they ha		(a)	What is meant by the term extended family?	[2]
(d) To what extent has there been a loss of family functions in modern industrial societies? [8] In modern industrial societies many women now work in paid employment. It is said that they have a 'dual burden'. (a) What is meant by the term dual burden? [2] (b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. [4] (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. [6] (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? [8] Section B: Education There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? [2] (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. [4] (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. [6] (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? [2] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]		(b)	Describe two reasons for the decline of the extended family in modern industrial societies	s.[4]
In modern industrial societies many women now work in paid employment. It is said that they have a 'dual burden'. (a) What is meant by the term dual burden? (b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? Section B: Education 3 There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools		(c)	Explain how roles within the nuclear family are changing.	[6]
a 'dual burden'. (a) What is meant by the term dual burden? (b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? Section B: Education 3 There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? (E) It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools		(d)	To what extent has there been a loss of family functions in modern industrial societies?	[8]
(b) Describe two traditional male roles within the family. (c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? Section B: Education 3 There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]	2			ave
(c) Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment. (d) To what extent is there equality within the family today? Section B: Education 3 There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools		(a)	What is meant by the term dual burden?	[2]
Section B: Education There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [6] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]		(b)	Describe two traditional male roles within the family.	[4]
Section B: Education There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic ? [2 (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. [4 (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital ? [5 (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [6 [6 [6 [6 [6 [6 [6 [6 [6 [(c)	Explain the effect on family life of mothers working in paid employment.	[6]
There is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic. (a) What is meant by the term meritocratic ? (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital ? [5] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [6] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]		(d)	To what extent is there equality within the family today?	[8]
(a) What is meant by the term meritocratic ? [2] (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. [4] (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. [6] (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital ? [2] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6]		Section B: Education
 (b) Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum. [4] (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. [6] (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? [2] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6] 	3	The	re is a debate in sociology over whether modern educational systems are meritocratic.
 (c) Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils. [6] (d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8] 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? [2] (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4] (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6] 		(a)	What is meant by the term meritocratic ?	[2]
(d) To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally? [8 4 It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital ? [2 (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4 (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools		(b)	Describe two examples of what pupils learn at school outside the official curriculum.	[4]
It is said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital. (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital ? (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools		(c)	Explain how streaming may affect the educational performance of pupils.	[6]
 (a) What is meant by the term cultural capital? [2 (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4 (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6 		(d)	To what extent do schools treat all ethnic groups equally?	[8]
 (b) Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement. [4 (c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6 	4	It is	said that some children are disadvantaged in school because they lack cultural capital.
(c) Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of schools [6		(a)	What is meant by the term cultural capital ?	[2]
[6		(b)	Describe two ways in which home factors may influence educational achievement.	[4]
(d) To what extent is the peer group the main influence on educational achievement? [8		(c)	Explain how working class pupils may be disadvantaged by the middle class nature of scho	ols. [6]
		(d)	To what extent is the peer group the main influence on educational achievement?	[8]

© UCLES 2014 0495/21/O/N/14

Section C: Crime, Deviance and Social Control

5	In o	In order to maintain law and order in modern industrial societies, formal social control is necessary.
	(a)	What is meant by the term formal social control?	[2]
	(b)	Describe two sanctions that may be used to maintain law and order.	[4]
	(c)	Explain what sociological factors may lead a person to commit crime.	[6]
	(d)	To what extent is informal social control important in maintaining law and order in modindustrial societies?	dern [8]
6		said that some individuals in society are affected by anomie. Some people may also experients frustration.	ence
	(a)	What is meant by the term anomie?	[2]
	(b)	Describe two groups who may experience status frustration.	[4]
	(c)	Explain why a high proportion of recorded crime is committed by just a few groups in soc	iety. [6]
	(d)	To what extent is crime the result of inequality in society?	[8]
		Section D: Media
7		e media are often criticised for producing distorted views of particular individuals or group iety. The media have also been blamed for creating folk devils and moral panics.	s in
	(a)	What is meant by the term folk devils?	[2]
	(b)	Describe two examples of moral panics.	[4]
	(c)	Explain how media reporting may create a distorted view of an individual or group.	[6]
	(d)	To what extent do the media shape the norms of society?	[8]
8		pple use the media in different ways. This is particularly the case with the new media, which lacing the traditional media.	are
	(a)	What is meant by the term traditional media?	[2]
	(b)	Describe two ways in which individuals may use the media.	[4]
	(c)	Explain why the use of new technologies has led to the decline of the traditional media.	[6]
	(d)	To what extent is age the main influence on how people use the media?	[8]

© UCLES 2014 0495/21/O/N/14

Δ

BLANK PAGE

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

Cambridge International Examinations is part of the Cambridge Assessment Group. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is itself a department of the University of Cambridge.

© UCLES 2014 0495/21/O/N/14