At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 20 printed pages.

SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

After 1815 people began to take great pride in their national identity. This was particularly important in nations which had been conquered in the past or absorbed into much larger empires. At the same time liberals wanted to be free and resented the rule of repressive governments. Occasionally the liberals and the nationalists clashed instead of uniting against the common enemy.

From a school history textbook published in 1985.

- (a) What was meant by 'nationalism' and 'liberalism' in the nineteenth century? [5]
- (b) Why did the Hungarian Revolution of 1848 fail? [7]
- (c) How much was Europe changed by the revolutions of 1848? Explain your answer. [8]

2 Study the cartoon, and then answer the questions which follow.

A British cartoon, published in July 1870. France (left) and Prussia (right) prepare to fight. France tells Britain to stand back as it is an old family quarrel that must be sorted out.

- (a) What was the Schleswig-Holstein Crisis of 1863-1864? [5]
- (b) Why did war break out between France and Prussia in 1870? [7]
- (c) How far was German unification a result of Bismarck's use of force? Explain your answer. [8]

3 Study the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The real issue is the view of one group that looks upon slavery as a wrong, and another group that does not look upon it as wrong. The Republican Party look upon it as being a moral, social and political wrong. One of the methods of treating it as a wrong is to make sure that it grows no larger.

Abraham Lincoln speaking in 1858.

- (a) What was the Missouri Compromise? [5]
- (b) Why did John Brown lead a raid on Harper's Ferry? [7]
- (c) 'The 1860 election was the main cause of the Civil War.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]
