Answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B.

You should write between 600 and 900 words for each composition.

Section A: Narrative/Descriptive/Imaginative Writing

- 1 Write a descriptive piece called The Workplace. In your writing focus on colours, sounds and textures to help your reader imagine the scene.
- 2 'Thunder could be heard rumbling faintly in the distance; rain began to spit from the sky; the wind was beginning to rise. The island lay just before them. They needed shelter and needed it now ...'

Continue a short story from this opening. In your writing create a sense of mood and place. (You do not have to complete the story.)
- 3 Write the opening chapter of a novel called The Outlaw. In your writing create a sense of character and motivation of someone who lives outside the law.
- 4 Imagine you have been imprisoned for thirty years and are released into a world which has changed enormously. Write a piece which conveys your new sights and sensations in contrast to the world you once knew.

Section B: Discursive/Argumentative Writing

- 5 Does capitalism work? Give detailed reasons to support your views.
- 6 Two different newspapers cover the same national news event. One of the newspapers reports matters in a formal and restrained style, while the other offers a dramatic and sensationalised approach. Write these two contrasting pieces (between 300–450 words each).
- 7 'Astrology? Fortune telling? Prophecies? They're all nonsense.' Do you agree?
- 8 You are participating in a national speaking competition organised for students by the Ministry of Education. You are asked to deliver a speech to students of your own age, called 'What My Country Can Do for Me and What I Can Do for My Country'. Write the speech.
