www.papacambridge.com MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2010 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/21

Paper 21 (Reading and Writing – Extended), maximum raw mark 84

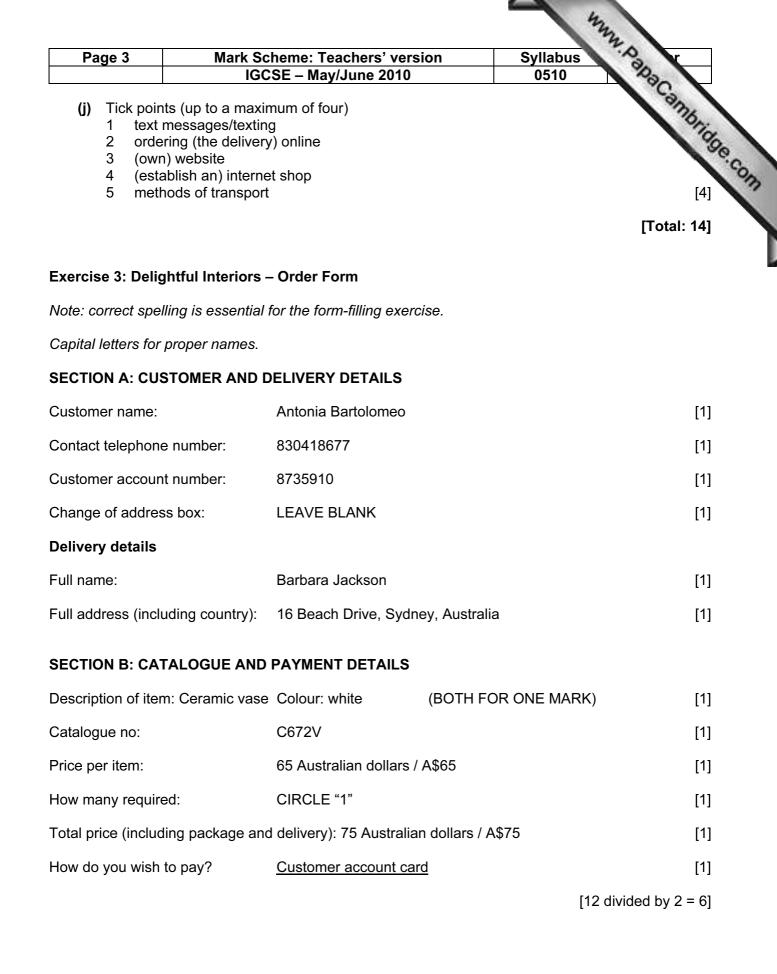

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2010 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

SECTION C

The sentence must be written in the first person.

Cambridge.com It is expected that the candidates will write a sentence which will contain relevant information. For example:

My mother needs vases for all the flowers that she has picked from the garden. My mother has many glass ornaments so a ceramic vase would be a nice surprise. It's my mother's birthday and I need to send her a gift. I need to send a gift and a ceramic vase would be a nice surprise.

For the sentence, award up to 2 marks as follows:

- 2 marks: no fewer than 12 and no more than 20 words; proper sentence construction; correct spelling, punctuation and grammar; relevant to context.
- 1 mark: no fewer than 12 and no more than 20 words; proper sentence construction; 1-3 errors of punctuation and/or spelling and/or grammar that do not obscure meaning; relevant to context.
- more than 3 errors of punctuation and/or spelling and/or grammar; AND/OR irrelevant to 0 marks: context, AND/OR not a proper sentence; AND/OR fewer than 12 or more than 20 words.

Exercise 5: Socia	al networking sites: Summary
Award maximum c	of 6 marks for content and maximum of 4 marks	for language.
Do not award lang	uage marks if there is no content to reward.
Content (up to 6	marks)

Exercise 5: Social networking sites: Summary

Content (up to 6 marks)

Main criticisms of social networking sites:

- 1 employees spend too much time on network sites/reduction in effort/productivity in workplaces
- 2 impossible to break away/could become addicted
- 3 reduce real life relationships
- 4 (physical) health will suffer
- 5 personal links and close communities might disappear
- 6 less physical contact/fewer handshakes and hugs
- 7 dangers of offering private details to complete strangers/not knowing exactly who they are inviting into their lives
- 8 people will become bored with the sites (or new technologies)

Language (up to 4 marks)

- meaning obscure because of density of language errors and serious problems with 0 marks: expression/nothing of relevance
- 1 mark: expression weak/reliance on lifting without discrimination
- 2 marks: expression limited/some reliance on lifting from the original, but some sense of order
- 3 marks: expression good, with attempts to group and sequence ideas in own words
- 4 marks: expression very good; clear, orderly grouping and sequencing largely in own words

Exercise 6: Interesting item discovery

Exercise 7: Fashionable clothes

The following general instructions, and table of marking criteria, apply to both exercises.

- www.papaCambridge.com Content covers relevance (i.e. whether the piece fulfils the task and the awareness of purpose/ audience/register) and the development of ideas (i.e. the detail/explanation provided and how enjoyable it is to read).
- Language covers style (i.e. complexity of vocabulary and sentence structure) and accuracy (of • grammar, spelling, punctuation and use of paragraphs).
- When deciding on a mark for content or language, first of all decide which mark band is most appropriate. There will not necessarily be an exact fit. Then decide between 2 marks within that mark band. Use the lower mark if it only just makes it into the band and the upper mark if it fulfils all the requirements of the band but doesn't quite make it into the band above.
- When deciding on a mark for content, look at both relevance and development of ideas. First • ask yourself whether the writing fulfils the task, in terms of points to be covered and the length. If it does, it will be in at least the 4–5 mark band.
- When deciding on a mark for language, look at both the style and the accuracy of the language. A useful starting point would be first to determine whether errors intrude. If they do not, it will be in at least the 4–5 mark band.
- The use of paragraphs should not be the primary basis of deciding which mark band the work is in. Look first at the language used and once you have decided on the appropriate mark band, you can use the paragraphing as a factor in helping you to decide whether the work warrants the upper or lower mark in the mark band.
- If the essay is considerably shorter than the stated word length, it should be put in mark band • 2–3 for content or lower for not fulfilling the task.
- If the essay is totally irrelevant and has nothing to do with the question asked, it should be given 0 marks for Content and Language, even if it is enjoyable to read and fluent.
- If the essay is partly relevant and therefore in mark band 2-3, the full range of marks for • language is available.
