

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2013 series

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ORAL ENDORSEMENT)

0510/11

Paper 1 (Reading and Writing (core)), maximum raw mark 70

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

SECTION D

Max. total for Section D: 4 marks

In the space below, write one sentence stating how you intend to travel to the event, and one sentence giving the reason for your choice of accommodation.

Sentences must be written from the point of view of Karl Anton.

Sample sentence 1

I have decided that travelling by bus is the most practical means of transport.

We are travelling by bus.

Sample sentence 2

We have chosen the sports village because it is more convenient.

The sports village is more convenient.

For each sentence, award up to 2 marks as follows:

2 marks: proper sentence construction; correct spelling, punctuation and grammar; gives the information asked for

1 mark: proper sentence construction; 1–3 errors of punctuation / spelling / grammar (without obscuring meaning); gives the information asked for

0 marks: more than 3 errors of punctuation / spelling / grammar; and / or does not give the information asked for; and / or not a proper sentence; and / or meaning obscure

Absence of a full stop at the end should be considered as 1 punctuation error.

Absence of an upper case letter at the beginning should be considered as 1 punctuation error.

Omission of a word in a sentence should be considered as 1 grammar error.

Exercise 4 Radio telescope could detect aliens in space

*NB Correct answers only apply if they are placed under the correct sub-heading (as detailed below)
Only one mark may be awarded per line.*

Only mark first idea on the line and ignore the rest, even if second idea is correct

Add the correct answers (i.e. total of ticks) to give a total out of 7.

Remember that this exercise is marked for content (reading) not language.

Technical features of the radio telescope

(max 2 marks this heading)

powerful enough to detect distant transmissions

- 3000 radio dishes and antennae / radio dishes and antennae linked
- much more sensitive / thousands of times more sensitive
- much more data than internet / 100 times more data than internet

Main tasks of the telescope

(max 3 marks this heading)

- detect aliens
- map universe / show positions of more than a billion galaxies
- understand dark energy / understand force that makes universe expand
- pick up faint radiation / gather radiation produced 13 billion years ago / gather old radiation

Rules for the construction site

(max 2 marks this heading)

- southern hemisphere
- free from radio interference

Exercise 5 Laughter: summary

This exercise is marked for language, not content, but if content is entirely irrelevant to the task, a mark of zero should be awarded.

Count words and do not mark anything exceeding 80 words, as specified in the question. Candidates will not be assessed on anything they have written after this limit.

A maximum of 4 marks can be awarded for any response which exceeds 80 words.

Language: (up to 5 marks)

- 0 marks: no understanding of the task / no relevant content / meaning completely obscure due to serious language inaccuracies
- 1 mark: copying without discrimination from text / multiple language inaccuracies
- 2 marks: heavy reliance on language from the text with no attempt to organise and sequence points cohesively / limited language expression making meaning at times unclear
- 3 marks: some reliance on language from the text, but with an attempt to organise and sequence points cohesively / language satisfactory, but with some inaccuracies
- 4 marks: good attempt to use own words and to organise and sequence points cohesively / generally good control of language
- 5 marks: good, concise summary style / very good attempt to use own words and to organise and sequence points cohesively

Exercise 6: Surprise event for family member

Exercise 7: Internet shopping

The following general instructions, and table of marking criteria, apply to both exercises.

- Award the answer a mark for content (C) [out of 7] and a mark for language (L) [out of 6] in accordance with the General Criteria table that follows.
- Content covers relevance (i.e. whether the piece fulfils the task and the awareness of purpose / audience / register) and the development of ideas (i.e. the detail / explanation provided and how enjoyable it is to read).
- Language covers style (i.e. complexity of vocabulary and sentence structure) and accuracy (of grammar, spelling, punctuation and use of paragraphs).
- When deciding on a mark for content or language, first of all decide which mark band is most appropriate. There will not necessarily be an exact fit. Then decide between 2 marks within that mark band. Use the lower mark if it only just makes it into the band and the upper mark if it fulfils all the requirements of the band but doesn't quite make it into the band above.
- When deciding on a mark for content, look at both relevance and development of ideas. First ask yourself whether the writing fulfils the task, in terms of points to be covered and the length. If it does, it will be in the 4–5 mark band.
- When deciding on a mark for language, look at both the style and the accuracy of the language. A useful starting point would be first to determine whether errors intrude. If they do not, it will be in the 4–5 mark band.
- The use of paragraphs should not be the primary basis of deciding which mark band the work is in. Look first at the language used and once you have decided on the appropriate mark band, you can use the paragraphing as a factor in helping you to decide whether the work warrants the upper or lower mark in the mark band.
- If the essay is considerably shorter than the stated word length, it should be put in mark band 2–3 for content or lower for not fulfilling the task. The language mark is likely to be affected and is unlikely to be more than one band higher than the content mark.
- If the essay is totally irrelevant and has nothing to do with the question asked, it should be given 0 marks for Content and Language, even if it is enjoyable to read and fluent.
- If the essay is partly relevant and therefore in mark band 2–3, the full range of marks for language is available.
