This document consists of 2 printed pages, 2 blank pages and 1 insert.

Answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B.

All questions carry equal marks.

You should write between 600–900 words for each question.

Section A: Imaginative writing

- 1 Write a descriptive piece called Looking for a Bargain, in which the narrator describes their experience of a shopping expedition. In your writing, focus on the sounds and atmosphere of the experience.
- 2 Write a story called I Never Expected That. In your writing, focus on character and mood.
- 3 Write two contrasting pieces (between 300–450 words each), the first about a sports team before an important game, and the second about the same team after the game. In your writing, focus on the differing atmospheres.

Section B: Writing for an audience

- 4 The editor of your local newspaper wants to run a series of pieces about people growing their own food and asks you to write an article called Growing, not Shopping. Write the text for the article. In your writing, create a sense of an enthusiastic attitude.
- 5 A well known zoo is being expanded and an advertising company are going to produce a promotional film, which aims to target younger visitors. Write the script for the voiceover of the film. In your writing, create a balance between having fun and learning about animals.
- 6 Your school magazine asks you to write an article that raises the profile of extra-curricular activities, such as sports or hobby clubs, within the school. Write the article. In your writing, create a sense of the importance of making the most of your time at school.
